During your stay:

Stay in a unique, first-class setting in the magical winter wonderland of Finnish Lapland. Visit Father Christmas, and meet the reindeer up close. Take a reindeer safari in the sparkling snow and try snowshoeing, then spend your evenings gazing in awe at the dark sky hoping to see the brilliant colours of the Aurora Borealis.

You will stay in Pyhä where you'll be picked up from Rovaniemi airport, and driven straight to your incredible accommodation.

Authentic, warming breakfasts, lunches and dinners will be provided in the cosy local restaurant, where you can sit at the window and drink in the picturesque views at every meal.

Enjoy some unforgettable experiences in awe-inspiring landscapes, including snowmobile safari, Reindeer safari and even meeting Santa Claus.

All your activities are expertly organised, so that you can simply enjoy and relax as we take care of the details.

You will also have the opportunity to perhaps see the northern lights! Its all about being in the right place at the right time. Fortunately, you'll be in exactly the right place, at the right time of year, maximising your chances of ticking off the ultimate bucket list moment, if you're lucky you may spot them through the glass roof of your accommodation!

Accommodation

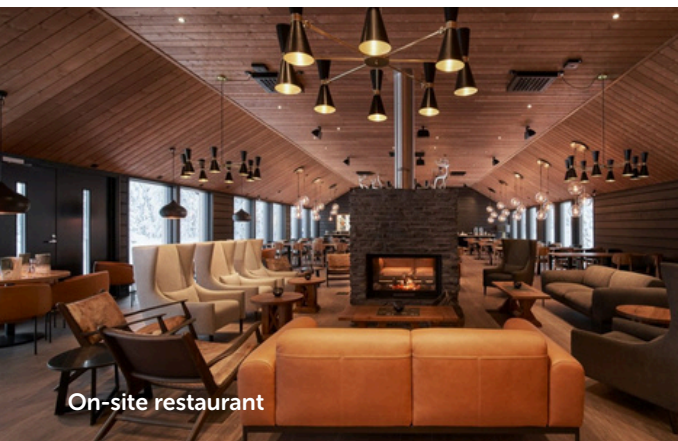

The Aurora Cabins and Aurora Suites at the Northern Lights Village are a magical way to experience the wintry star-filled sky and the Northern Lights, while lying comfortably in the warm bed. The laser-heated glass-roof opens up into the northern sky, directly above the bed.

Staying in Pyhä

Pyhä, a small ski resort which is 90 minutes drive from Rovaniemi. Deep in the Lappish countryside with amazing views over a frozen lake. All the activities begin from the resort reception area just a short walk from your cabin.

FAQs

Do you offer direct flights?

Depending on your preferred departure airport and date, your flight will be direct, or indirect via Helsinki.

Who do you look for at the airport for the transfers?

A driver with the sign Northern Lights Village for Pyhä.

How many people can the Cabins sleep?

The Aurora Cabins sleep up to 4 people, an upgrade to the Aurora Suite which sleep up to 5, is available at a supplement.

Is the Lapland break available for 2 adults?

Yes. It is very popular for adults only.

What are the age classifications for a child?

Ages 4 - 11

What is included in the thermal clothing?

Basic equipment for outdoor activities is provided by the resort at no extra cost, for both overnight guests and people participating in activities. This includes thermal overalls, boots and gloves, as well as experience-specific gear such as helmets/balaclavas for snowmobile safaris and cross-country skis and snowshoes for active experiences. Overnight guests may keep the gear throughout their stay, whilst guests participating in experiences only, are asked to return the gear after the end of the activity. Please bring good base and mid-layers, namely thermal underwear, a fleece jacket or wool sweater, a beanie, a scarf, wool socks, as well as lighter clothing for possible warmer days. We recommend avoiding cotton based materials.

Is the visit to Santa included in the package?

Yes and children can expect to receive a small gift from Santa.

Can parents take their own gifts for Santa to give to the children?

It's preferred if parents not to bring their own gifts for Santa to give, so that all children visiting Santa receive the same experience.

Can the children take a list to give to Santa?

Most children make a note of what they are hoping for once there, but they can ask at reception if they should pass the list on to them or to the Elf whilst they are making gingerbread before going into Santa's house, either way the hosts, Santa and the Elves will all be happy to accommodate where they can.

Is there an age/height restriction for Snowmobile safari?

Children under 140cm are pulled by an instructor on a sledge and over 140cm are on the back of the snowmobile with parents.
