Full Itinerary

Day 1: Overnight Flight

Board your overnight flight from the UK to Bangkok Airport BKK.

Day 2: Arrive in Bangkok

Arrive in Bangkok, meet local guide and transfer to your hotel. Spend your afternoon relaxing and enjoying the hotel's facilities, or head out to begin exploring the city.

ACCOMMODATION: 3* W22 by Burasari, Bangkok or similar

Day 3: Bangkok to Kanchanaburi

Depart early and head an hour southwest of Bangkok to visit the Mae Klong Railway Market. Enjoy the countryside and pass the Samut Sakhon salt pan, where farmers harvest salt. At Mae Klong, experience the unique market set alongside train tracks, watching as vendors skillfully move their goods as the train passes by.

Next, explore the Damnoen Saduak Floating Market in Ratchaburi. Take a boat ride, barter with local vendors, and enjoy the lively atmosphere.

Continue to the Khwae Yai Bridge, park of the Death Railway and famous from the film "Bridge over the River Kwai", reflecting on its history as you walk across it.

End the tour at the Thailand-Burma Railway Centre, a museum documenting the construction of the Death Railway. Visit the nearby Allied War Cemetery to pay respects to the prisoners of war buried there.

Transfer to your hotel in Kanchanaburi for check in.

ACCOMMODATION: 3* River Kwai Resortel, Kanchanaburi or similar

Day 4: Kanchanaburi to Ayutthaya, and Overnight Train to Chiang Mai

Start your tour at the Hellfire Pass Memorial Museum, learning about the Death Railway and Hellfire Pass through photographs, tools used by prisoners of war, and a short video with commentary from former POW's. Then, walk the actual Hellfire Pass, reflecting on its history and visiting a memorial honouring the Thai, British, Dutch, American, and Australian lives lost.

Afterwards, transfer to Ayutthaya to visit Wat Mahathat, a 14th-century temple complex known for its Buddha head entwined in tree roots. Then, tour Wat Phra Si Sanphet, famous for its three chedis, which inspired Wat Phra Kaew in Bangkok.

End the day with refreshments at Krungsri River Hotel before boarding the night train to Chiang Mai.

ACCOMMODATION: Overnight train in private 1st class cabin with twin bunk and shared bathroom

MEALS INCLUDED: Breakfast

Day 5: Chiang Mai City Tour and Cooking Class

Arrive at Chiang Mai Railway Station at 07:15 and meet your guide for breakfast at a local restaurant before visiting Wat Phra That Doi Suthep, a revered temple dating back to 1382, located on Mount Doi Suthep. Take a tram to the temple grounds, where you'll see pagodas, bells, statues, and shrines, including a replica of the Emerald Buddha and a statue of Ganesh.

This afternoon, join a cooking class at Zabb E Lee Thai cooking school in the countryside. Begin with a visit to a local market to shop for ingredients, then head to the school to learn how to cook four Thai dishes, curry paste, and sticky mango rice using fresh, local ingredients. End the experience by enjoying your homemade meal with fellow participants.

ACCOMMODATION: 4* Hotel Aruntara Riverside, Chiang Mai or similar

MEALS INCLUDED: Breakfast, lunch, dinner

Day 6: Chiang Rai

Travel north to Chiang Rai to visit the iconic White Temple, Wat Rong Khun, known for its radiant white colour and reflective glass mosaics, symbolizing the purity of the Buddha.

Next, visit a Long Neck Karen Village, where you'll observe the unique tradition of women elongating their necks with brass coils.

Continue to the Golden Triangle, where the borders of Thailand, Laos, and Myanmar converge, and enjoy a scenic boat ride for a closer view of this remarkable site.

Afterward, drive back to Chiang Mai.

ACCOMMODATION: 4* Hotel Aruntara Riverside, Chiang Mai or similar

MEALS INCLUDED: Breakfast

Day 7: Chiang Mai to Luang Prabang

Transfer to Chiang Mai Airport for your included flight to Luang Prabang, on arrival you'll be greeted by your guide and driver then transferred to your hotel.

This evening walk to the night market - a cultural treasure trove for those seeking unique gifts, and a foodie's paradise with the street food vendors and restaurant at the end. Enjoy a welcome dinner at a local restaurant.

ACCOMMODATION: 3* The Sanctuary Hotel Luang Prabang or similar

MEALS INCLUDED: Breakfast, dinner

Day 8: Luang Prabang

Start your day early in Luang Prabang to witness the mystical almsgiving ritual, where around 300 young monks collect food as a demonstration of humility. If you wish to participate, your guide can show you the respectful way to offer food, and remember to take photos discreetly without flash. Afterward, stroll through the morning market, filled with locals haggling for fresh produce.

Next, explore the city's cultural highlights, including Wat Xieng Thong, a beautifully decorative temple, and the former Royal Palace, now the National Museum showcasing rare artifacts.

Visit the UXO Visitor Centre (closed on weekends) to learn about Laos' history as the most heavily bombed nation per capita, through exhibitions and films.

Enjoy lunch at your leisure before meeting local artisans, Mone and Keo, who share their weaving skills and the success of their business at Ock Pop Tok, a renowned social enterprise.

End your day by climbing 328 steps up Mount Phousi for stunning panoramic views of the city at sunset.

ACCOMMODATION: 3* The Sanctuary Hotel Luang Prabang or similar
